Your Mental Health & Wellbeing during Coronavirus – Know where to turn to:

You might be worried about Coronavirus (also known as COVID-19) and how it could affect your life. This may include being asked to stay at home or avoid other people. This might feel difficult or stressful, but there are lots of things you can try that could help your wellbeing.

“Mind” have produced a helpful guide to offer support to people around taking care of your mental health and wellbeing during this time. You will find all information on the following link.

Knowing where to turn to for Mental Health:

If you are currently in contact with a Community Out-patient Team, your appointments may be managed differently during a period where there may be reduced capacity within the hospital. Each case will be managed on an individual needs basis. This could mean that you receive your support by telephone to reduce the need to attend hospital. If you are presenting with symptoms (new persistent cough or fever) please do not attend hospital/clinic – please phone your Team Secretary to arrange a telephone contact. During this time, you may also wish to consider other forms of advice and guidance available via telephone or online to support your mental health and wellbeing.
